FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS IN SLUGGING CASE

Injured Negro Is Barely Alive—Two Negroes Have Been Arrested for the Crime and Are in Jail.

The negro found slugged in a house near Stone City Monday is just barely alive today. His skull is fractured in two places, and he has been unable to talk since he was found crawling about in a house in which he lived alone. Sheriff Conlee went back to the bottom yesterday afternoon and made a second arrest in connection with the case, taking into custody Robert Davis, a negro. He and Addie Gordon, colored, arrested yesterday morning, are held on suspicion, and have been lodged in the county jail. They were arrested in Stone City, and they and the dying negro worked on the levee together, it is alleged.

PARCELS POST STAMPS SAVED A DOG

[By Associated Press.]
Hackensack, N. J., March 6.—Postman John Kenan yesterday saved a stray dog from the dog catcher by affixing a parcels post stamp to the dog's ear and defying the dog catcher to touch the animal.

MORE UGLY CHARGES ABOUT MADERO'S DEATH

Said to Have Been Killed Two Days Before His Death Was Officially Reported.

[By Associated Press.]
Houston, Texas, March 6.—A dispatch from Brownsville says Mrs. Emilio Madero, who passed through there last night, declared Francisco Madero was killed two days before the officials and Ambassador Wilson announced it, and that he was tortured by knife cuts in the back. Afterward, she says, General Huerta appeared on the streets, tossing $500 bills to the populace. Madero suffered horribly at the time of his death.

A NEW CITY ADDITION

The purchasers of a portion of the farm of Mr. R. M. Nall on the east side, Messrs. W. G. Reynolds, W. I. McCulloch, Johnson & Rolfe, J. M. Gordon and J. B. Priddy, have laid it out in lots and blocks to be known as "Rose Hill" addition to the city of Bryan. Streets have been laid out and graded and the lots are offered for sale at very attractive terms.

SUPREME COURT VISITS PRESIDENT WILSON

Formal Call Was Brief and Wilson Left First at Suggestion of Aides. To Dispense with Unformed Aides.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, March 8.—The members of the United States Supreme Court in a body visited President Wilson at the White House today. The visit was very brief. The last occasion when the Supreme Court paid its formal call was on President Taft and was very embarrassing because the White House aides could not decide whether the President or members of the court should leave the room first. The court therefore prolonged its visit one hour. Today the aides told President Wilson he should leave the room first. He did so.

President Wilson today definitely decided to dispense with the services of unformed aides in public except on state occasions.

RETURNS IN HOUSTON MAYORALTY CONTEST

[By Associated Press.]
Houston, Texas, March 8.—The full returns from yesterday's Democratic primary give Ben Campbell 2431, against 2200 for J. M. Geiselman. It is a big anti-administration victory.

WACO VISITED BY DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Waco, Texas, March 8.—Two hundred thousand dollars' damage was done here early this morning when J. E. Horne's three-story building on Austin street was destroyed by fire. The walls of the burning building fell, crushing a two-story and a one-story building, both fronting Sixth street. A jewelry shop, drug store, printing office and tailor shop were in the crushed buildings. No one was hurt.

Two Lives Believed Lost.

[By Associated Press.]
Waco, Texas, March 8.—It is now believed two lives were lost in the Horne building fire here early this morning.

OIL RESERVOIR COMPLETED FOR BRYAN POWER COMPANY

The Bryan Power Company has just completed a large reinforced concrete oil reservoir in which to store fuel for its Diesel engines. The tank is 11 feet deep and 21 feet in diameter, and will hold six carloads of oil, enough to run the plant for five months. The tank is located just south of the power plant building.
